

Thank you for sponsoring one of the children of Notre Maison

A green background indicates children who are currently not sponsored.

A blue background indicates children who are in need of one additional sponsor.

A red background indicates children who are fully sponsored.

Brilner Auguste

Currently Has No Sponsors

D.O.B. June 14, 2002

Brilner is a mobile but non-verbal young boy. He is very social and mischievous. He doesn't like to sit still long enough to have his picture taken.

Gregory Brice

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. September 27, 2014

Gregory came to the orphanage when his father died and his mother could no longer support him. He was quite mal-nourished when he came and could not walk. He has since learned to walk and has become a happy, healthy and curious little boy.

Nadia Brutus

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. November 28, 2013

Nadia came to the orphanage as a severely mal-nourished baby. She is now happy and healthy. She is very social and independent and loves to play with the other girls.

Maxo Careleis

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. July 22, 2006

Maxo suffered from congenital cataracts and was blind when he first came to the orphanage. He underwent eye surgery in 2013 to remove the cataracts. The operation was partially successful and left Maxo with very limited vision. Maxo was initially non verbal but he has now begun to echo the words spoken by others. He loves physical interaction. He now attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Phonsley Emile

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. November 24, 2009

Phonsley has made great gains since coming to the orphanage. Though still in a wheelchair, Phonsley is leaning to walk with the help of leg braces. He now eats independently. He is a very friendly and happy little boy, always smiling. He now attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Sandra Emmanuel

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. July 8, 2006

Sandra was brought to the orphanage by Social Services as an abandoned child. She is non verbal and has both physical and mental handicaps. Her social interaction with others is quite limited as she seems to prefer being on her own. She now attends Gertrude's new school the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Alain Espoir

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. May 15, 2003

Alain is has both physical and mental handicaps. He needs assistance with all aspects of daily living. He is non verbal. Despite this he laughs often and enjoys social interaction.

Christella Espoir

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. February 2 , 2002

Christella is growing into a lovely young girl. She is quiet but very social in her interactions with her peers. She enjoys attending school outside the orphanage where she can play with other girls her age.

Christine Espoir

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. June 15, 2005

Christine is a lovely young girl, always smiling and laughing despite the fact that she is confined to a wheelchair and has very limited independent movement. She makes others around her happy. She now attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Forlan Espoir

Currently Has No sponsors

D.O.B. March 13, 1999

Forlan is a tall young man.
He is very mobile but non verbal. He has many autistic-like behaviours and seems to prefer to be alone.

Gus Espoir

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. November 12, 1999

Gus is an extremely friendly and enthusiastic young man who is always smiling. He has cerebral palsy which affects his gait and speech but his receptive language is very good. He loves to colour and do school work. He attends Gertrude's new school the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Jacky Espoir

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. May 9 2006

Jacky is always smiling. Though he has limited speech, he has no difficulty making his wants and needs known. He is friendly, loves to interact with people and is always smiling. He is an enthusiastic participant in all activities. He attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Jepthe Espoir

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One additional Sponsor

D.O.B. September 3, 2005

Jephte is a happy and active boy who enjoys social interaction. He has some very mild physical limitations and some speech problems but his receptive language is very good. He is loving and likeable, though often mischievous. He attends school outside the orphanage.

Joseph Espoir

Currently Has No Sponsors

D.O.B. June 7, 1997

Joseph is now a young man. He has virtually grown up at the orphanage. He is blind and non verbal and confined to a wheelchair. He is a gentle soul who enjoys music.

Jude Espoir

Currently Has No Sponsors

D.O.B. June 15, 2004

Jude was blind from birth with congenital cataracts. These were surgically removed in 2013 but he still appears to have very limited vision. Jude is non verbal and confined to a wheelchair but he has a beautiful voice. He loves to sing and play the drums.

Melissa Espoir

Currently Has No Sponsors

D.O.B. September 8, 2003

Melissa came to the orphanage when she was 10 years old. Little is known of her time before this. She is mobile but has mental handicaps. She prefers to be on her own and displays many characteristics of autism.

Nathalie Espoir

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. August 4, 2000

Natalie is non verbal and in a wheelchair but she is very alert and knows how to make her wants and needs known. Nathalie laughs a lot and loves social interaction. She attends Gertrude's new school the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Roseline Espoir

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. September 25, 1996

Roseline is now a lovely young adult. She is in a wheelchair and has limited control of her movements but she has learned to feed herself and likes to colour. Roseline is non verbal but always smiling and eager to interact with others.

Tassie Espoir

Needs One additional Sponsor

D.O.B. unknown but he is about 12 years old (born in 2005)

When Tassie first came to the orphanage, he was non verbal. He now talks but is still difficult to understand. Tassie loves to be on the move and to be busy. He often helps feed the other children or helps out in the laundry. He now attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education and loves it.

Junior Fils Aime

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. March 13, 1993

Junior, as everyone calls him, is now a young man. He is officially in charge of opening and closing the gate at the orphanage and he's great at his job. He is friendly and helpful. He has some speech but it is difficult to understand.

Lovely Guerdena

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. February 9, 2006

Lovely's name suits her. She's a quiet but independent and serious young girl. She is very good with the other children and often helps the nannies take care of them. She goes to school outside the orphanage.

Luckson Guerrier

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. August 12, 2002

Luckson is a quiet, bright young boy. He has been at the orphanage since November of 2013. He goes to school outside the orphanage where he loves to play football with his friends. He's helpful at the orphanage where he has some chores to complete. His smile is disarming.

Jean Daniel Innocent

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. October 22, 2004

Jean Daniel is a very determined, independent and good natured young boy. Through his own determination, he taught himself to walk by hanging on to the back of a wheelchair. He has a huge smile. He now is greatly enjoying going to Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Naika Jean Paul Lin

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. unknown but she was about 5 in 2015 when she first came to the orphanage

Naika came to the orphanage when her mother died. She is a very bright girl who learns quickly and does very well in school. She loves to dance and sing and play with the other girls both at the orphanage and at school.

Jean Ronald

Needs One additional Sponsor

D.O.B. January 16, 2012

Jean Ronald is medically fragile and severely handicapped young boy. He came to the orphanage in 2015. Since then, he has gained weight and strength both from an enriched diet and physical therapy. He looks healthier and more aware.

Marise Jeanne

Currently Has No Sponsors

D.O.B. – 2008 (exact date unknown)

Marise is a wonderful little girl. When she first came to the orphanage she had club feet. This has been corrected and she is now very mobile. She's curious and energetic and full of fun. She loves to learn and is attending Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education. She always the first one to answer questions or participate in an activity.

Alvarez Joseph

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. August 28, 2011

This little boy is a going concern. He has a mind of his own and can bring even Gertrude around to his way of thinking. He's independent, mischievous and loveable. He goes to school outside the orphanage.

Wilcia Joseph

Needs One additional Sponsor

D.O.B. January 27, 2006

When Wilcia first came to the orphanage, she was severely malnourished and had difficulty sitting up. She is now quite mobile, alert and smiling. Wilcia is non verbal but seems to understand much of what is said to her. She is really enjoying attending Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Cade Michael LaConte

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. December 12, 2003

Cade is quite an anxious young boy. He prefers a quieter, calmer environment. He is non verbal and has a mental handicap but is very mobile. He enjoys walks and music.

Sarah Milie

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. February 22, 2014

Sarah first came to the orphanage in June of 2015. She had been abandoned and was found by the police. As well as being severely handicapped, she was very malnourished. Given an enriched diet and physical therapy, Sarah has become healthier, stronger and more aware of her environment.

Johnathan Moise

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. August 13, 2008

Johnathan is a very bright and energetic young boy. He does very well in school and learns quickly. He is a willing participant in all activities especially football. He attends school outside the orphanage.

Olguie Moise

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. February 14, 1999

Olguie is non verbal but she is a very sweet and gentle child. She is friendly and enjoys social interaction. She now attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education which she very much enjoys.

Kethia Molar

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. September 10, 2002

Kethia has been at the orphanage ever since she was found abandoned on the streets of Port Au Prince. She has grown into a very capable and helpful young girl. She assists the nannies in taking care of the handicapped children whenever help is needed. She attends school outside the orphanage.

Keloke Osias

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Fully Sponsored

D.O.B. February 12, 2005

Keloke is the only child at the orphanage who is attending high school. He is a very bright young boy who learns quickly. He is also quiet and sensitive and very skilled artistically. His self taught ability to draw is amazing. He is very creative and hard working.

Oskar Renel

Sponsored by peopleagainstpoverity.com

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. July 12, 2011

Oscar is non verbal and confined to a wheelchair but, in physical therapy he is learning to sit up on his own and he is getting stronger. He is a quiet and very likeable little boy.

Valencia Saint Vil

Needs One additional Sponsor

D.O.B. May 4, 2004

Valencia has both mental and physical handicaps and is confined to a wheelchair. She requires assistance with all aspects of daily living. Despite this, she seems a happy girl, often smiling and laughing.

Marvens Siamdi

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. January 18, 1997

Marvens is now a young man. He tends to keep to himself just observing his surroundings. He is non verbal and mentally handicapped but very mobile.

Gabrielle Valcius

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. January 6, 2004

Gabrielle loves attention and social interaction. She is non verbal but has no difficulty making her wants and needs known. She now attends Gertrude's new school, the Haiti Center for Inclusive Education.

Kerry Dieu Wood

Currently Has No Sponsors

D.O.B. October 8, 2012

Kerry came to the orphanage in October of 2016 when his grandmother could no longer care for him. Kerry is severely handicapped both physically and mentally. He is dependent on others for all his needs. He enjoys being around people and watching the world go by.

Woodmeyer Violent

Needs One Additional Sponsor

D.O.B. September 16, 2004

Woodmeyer has been at the orphanage for many years. He is severely handicapped both physically and mentally and dependent on others for all his needs. He is non verbal but smiles when he receives attention.

